EXHIBITS AT PPG PLACE THIS HOLIDAY SEASON

FORBES HOSPICE POINSETTIA TREE

November 26 through January 7

WINTERGARDEN

"Memories of cherished loved ones are sprinkled throughout the holiday season. The lights, the sounds, and the scents are as fresh as yesterday. They live with us forever."

The poinsettia trees on the Wintergarden stage have been purchased in memory of loved ones. All proceeds from these holiday tributes are used to support the mission of the Forbes Hospice.

You are invited to the Forbes Hospice Poinsettia Holiday Program on Monday, December 12, from 5 p.m. to 9 p.m. featuring the Golden Strolling Strings from North Allegheny High School. Jennifer Antkowiak from KDKA-TV will be our special guest.

TWO PPG PLACE DISPLAYS

MINIATURE EXHIBIT

The Pittsburgh Miniature Society presents the holidays in a miniature scale. See everything from a miniature Santa's workshop to tiny replicas of a home dressed in holiday style!

PAINTINGS OF PITTSBURGH by ROBERT HUCKESTIEN

M. Huckestien uses a photorealistic approach to portray many recognizable images of local landmarks. He is an instructor at the Pittsburgh Center for the Arts.

JEWELRY by CAROLYN NEMOYTN

M. Nemoitin works with Swaiski crystals and semi-precious stones as well as Venetian and lampworked glass that she collects from around the world to create one-of-a-kind jewelry pieces. She was born and raised in Hawaii and now lives in Pittsburgh.

PHOTOGRAPHY by ALEXANDER PAIHO

Father/son teamed up to create large-scale photos of Pittsburgh skyline and landmarks. (Available for commission work)

METALWORKS by DON JONES

Bugs, robots, abstract sculptures as well as the various trains that highlight the gingerbread houses throughout PPG Place this holiday season. (Available for commission work)

GLASS COLLECTION by PITTSBURGH GLASS CENTER

A collection of glass by one of the country's outstanding glass centers for learning and creating glass art

SCULPTURES by RON WYDEN

This Erie artist displays a collection of sculptures made of painted wood that have a three-dimensional typographic quality. The pieces appear to be steel or other very heavy material but are actually quite lightweight.

WOOD-FIRED PORCELAIN by FRANK STOEAN

The glaze makes the design on these incredible forms that feature a landscape effect with atmospheric perspective.
